

2002 AAPM SUMMER SCHOOL

INTRAVASCULAR BRACHYTHERAPY AND FLUOROSCOPICALLY-GUIDED INTERVENTIONS

McGill University ! Montreal, Quebec Canada ! July 18 - 21, 2002

AAPM Summer School Tuition Scholarships & Grants

AAPM is awarding up to 10 scholarships in the form of waiver of tuition for the AAPM Summer School, "Intravascular Brachytherapy and Fluoroscopically-Guided Interventions." These scholarships are being offered for applicants who are early in their careers in medical physics.

In addition to the above, two $500 grants to assist with other expenses related to the AAPM Summer School are being sponsored by Capintec, Inc. The Capintec grant is in honor of Dr. Arata Suzuki, Ph.D. Dr. Suzuki was part of Capintec for more than 20 years, where he served in many capacities including: Chief Scientist and Vice President of Development. Dr. Suzuki passed away in February of 1998. Capintec has established this award to honor his memory and his contributions to medical physics.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Strong consideration will be given to applicants with not less than 2.5 nor more than 5 years (at the time of the Summer School), continuous full-time employment in medical physics since award of master's or doctorate degree; but others may apply.
2. Applicants must be members of the AAPM in good standing.
3. Submit at least two letters of reference stating why attendance at this Summer School would benefit the applicant.
4. Submit a letter stating that support of tuition is not available, with documentation from the employer, if possible; or that the applicant is self-employed.
5. The above materials must be received in the AAPM Headquarters office by April 1, 2002. Please send to:
